Soviet-styled Raid Fails to Stop Paper

The American Politburo

By Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.
In Letter No. 214

Our betrayal of China marked the end of our long-time policy of the Open Door in China, which, together with the Monroe Doctrine, had long been the cornerstone of American foreign policy.

If it had been in our vital interest to betray China, some argument, however ignominious, might have been raised by some in its favor. But it was not in any sense in our interest. It was in disregard of every American interest.

The same alien element forced us to adopt the policy of "unconditional surrender" toward both Germany and Japan, although such unconditional surrender resulted in the practical annihilation of Germany and such horrible destruction as at Hiroshima and Nagasaki. This policy removed both Germany and Japan which otherwise could have been reconstructed and made effective barriers to Communism.

It ordered the American army to retire over 100 miles over land taken by our troops from the Germans, in order that Soviet Russia might occupy Berlin and much of the best of Germany. This like other travesties and treacheries has never been explained.

This alien element fathered the Nuremberg Trials, vehement and vindictive in their inception and in their carrying out, and which, should the United States ever be defeated in war, will be the precedent for the hanging of every important American official, from the President down. It led to the betrayal by us of the leaders of a huge Russian military force who surrendered to American troops and who were turned over by us to certain punishment at the hands of Soviet Russia.

This same influence led us to the setting up of the United Nations—an utter failure so far as any interest of the American people is concerned, but entirely understandable as the tool of the internationalists.

America, A Puppet of Stalin In Regard to Spain

This same alien influence persuaded the United Nations, this time at the instance of Stalin himself, to call upon the United States and other Governments to withdraw Ambassadors from Spain. Yet Spain is the one large country on Continental Europe that has defeated Communism and held it under complete control. She would be the strongest ally the United States could have in Europe.

This same alien influence permitted or ordered the destruction by ruthless force of literally billions of dollars of American military materiel, including airplane engines, precision instruments and even watches. It sold at the merest fraction of value or gave away other billions of materiel. And much of this materiel clearly found its way into the hands of Soviet Russia. Some of this materiel is at this mo-

Zionist Leader Maneuvers Confiscation of Office Files—Editor Manhandled in Attempt to Reach Telephone—Office Girl Flees in Terror as Raiders Strike Without Knowledge of Union Police

W. Henry MacFarland, Jr.,

Acting under the power of a tricked judgment for $1700, Robert Dvorin, prominent Zionist leader of Linden, New Jersey, maneuvered a surprise raid on June 17th, upon the office of the Editor of this newspaper, Conde McGinley. The raid climaxed one phase of a three year battle, in which a combination of Communist, Zionist and World Federationist forces have sought the paper's destruction.

The phase of the campaign with which the raid is connected involves long and complicated maneuverings, on the part of a Jewish faction hostile to COMMON SENSE, to obtain a sufficient degree of control over its one-time Christian printer to make further business with his firm impossible. When this goal was reached, in 1947, the faction engaged in practices which caused Mr. McGinley to dispute its total billings. A long legal battle ensued, and is still in progress.

With another court hearing scheduled within a week of the date in question, at which the case might have produced a fair and just decision, the hostile faction moved to active force. On the afternoon of June 17th, a Friday, two Jews, later identified as Alfred Greenberg and Harry Coplon, Union County Deputy Sheriffs, walked unannounced thru the door of the building which serves as the headquarters for COMMON SENSE. Without identifying themselves, without producing badges or other credentials, and without performing lawful service of any kind of writ, they informed Mr. McGinley that they had come to execute a levy, and that his personal as well as business property was to be removed from the premises. So menacing was the approach of these men, and so suspicious were their actions, that a girl worker, on duty at the time of their entrance, fled from the building in terror.

When his questions obtained no satisfactory explanation of their presence, McGinley started for a telephone located in the adjoining room. When he was followed by one of the raiders, he turned about and walked toward the door to the street. Realizing that he was alone, without witnesses or protection in case of assault, he had decided to use an outside telephone for contacting his attorney and co-workers.

As McGinley approached the door, the man later identified as Coplon stepped in front of him, as if to block his exit. As you or I would do under the same circumstances, McGinley pushed him aside in passing. Greenberg, still without divulging his identity, stepped from his position at the door, where he had motioned to Attorney Dvorin, and declared that McGinley was now under arrest.

How Secure These Rights?

Republished from CHRISTIAN VETERANS POLITICAL COUNSEL—CHICAGO.

During the spring of each year the powerful and dictatorial ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH issues its yearly report on Anti-Semitism in the United States. This year the ADL is more ambitious and has had its report for the year 1948 published in book form by Doubleday & Co., under the title HOW SECURE THESE RIGHTS? The advertising material on the jacket of the book states: "This book was a year in the making. Its documented facts and thought-provoking conclusions are the results of research and investigations which utilized the nationwide resources of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith." The book is voluminous in its listings of organizations, publications, and individuals which it deems "hate-mongers" etc. Among those listed are Merwin K. Hart, Upton Close, Joseph P. Kamp, Rep. John Rankin, Gov. Herman Talmadge, General George Van Horn Moseley, Rep. Clare Hoffman, Rep. Edward Cox, Rep. Ed. Gossett, Elizabeth Dilling, Mrs. L. Van Hynning, Rev. Gerald Winrod, Rev. Lawrence Reilly and Gerald L. K. Smith. Also included are numerous foreign-language newspapers in the United States which the ADL

Heaven Receives a Saint

(Editor's Note: If I have any good qualities, I am indebted to several who took the trouble and pains to influence me in the early years of my life. I am particularly grateful to a wonderful mother, kind and humble, but courageous in all respects, referred to by many as a saintly, sweet woman who benefited all with whom she came in contact. She, with three Catholic Sisters were the first to teach in Indian territory, and made dresses to replace the blankets worn by the Indian girls. My mother, Katherine Fritch McGinley died at the age of 91, on April 23rd, and as a tribute to her loving memory, I quote below the remarks of the Priest at her funeral.)

"He that shall persevere unto the end, he shall be saved." (Matthew, Chapter 10, verse 22)

Perseverance is a grace, a grace not given to everyone, a grace which God does not give unless it is asked for. "Ask and ye shall receive. Seek and ye shall find. Knock and it shall be opened unto you."

In any life we always have the cross. Our beloved deceased, here, lived a long and rich life. She learned to carry the cross. She acquired patience in carrying her crosses. She learned to love the cross. She said her morning and evening prayers, her grace before and after meals. She meditated daily. She knew that there is a God. She knew that there are three divine Persons in God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; and that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity came down and became Man.

She could say, with the great Saint Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. As to the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord the just judge will render to me in that day," for I believe in the resurrection of the body: one day this body will rise glorious and immortal from the tomb, to be reunited with my soul, to enjoy God for all eternity.

As she spent this long span on our earth she has given us a great example of what a grand thing it is to think. We need more thinkers. Our whole land is suffering now because so many do not think.

She sang. From the time she learned to speak she began singing; she was singing after her ninetieth year; she sang for hours on her last day on earth.

She wrote poetry. And by reason of the thought which she has expressed in this poem that I have had the privilege of reading, I should like to read it this morning. She has called it

OUT OF THE SILENCE

The most profound and perfect silence ever held

He held, amidst the most tumultuous rabble. The hour before the greatest victory ever won Was spent midst jeers and tortures of the evil.

When e'en the worst of us doth face death's hour

Around us loved ones doth apply all known endeavor

To cheer the heart and fill our parting thoughts With loyal words and deeds of love, death cannot sever;

But He, the Lord of heaven and of earth,

Who all celestial and terrestrial gifts hath given,

Didst die bereft of every gift of earth And, seemingly, of every gift of heaven.

Then, though His peace at all times may be sought,

Yet ours it may be to embrace, with Him, The hour in Gethsemane—and even on the cross

Perceive His graces, strength and love but dim.

But Oh the Resurrection! Thank God for this! Behold the words of everlasting bliss:

"Come ye blessed of my Father,"—hearken; see;

"Possess the kingdom I have prepared for thee."

By her life of patience and perseverance she has won her eternal rest. I will remember her in my Mass each morning. You will remember her too. If she is not in need of your prayers, they will be applied to those who are in need of them.

You have a worthy example in her. If you will follow that example, you too will hear the words, "Come ye blessed of my Father; Possess the kingdom I have prepared for thee."

Socialized Medicine

Oscar R. Ewing is head of the Federal Security Administration and one of the biggest promoters of "socialized medicine" as a first move toward regimentation of the medical profession and all who need medical treatment.

Although he draws a salary of $12,000.00 per year (plus ?????? expenses) he forced the (government supported) Saint Elizabeth Hospital in The District of Columbia to provide him with a man cook for some kind of special dining establishment which he maintains in his office building (probably at government expense for food etc.) but to keep this cook on the hospital payroll. In other words, not having any place in his budget for a cook, he stole this cook's salary from the hospital inmates—whose patients, at least for the greater part, are insane and need every nickle for attendants which can be scratched together.

In January or February of 1949 (and maybe also at other times earlier) Ewing spent several days undergoing treatment in the hospital of The Coast Guard and Merchant Marine (at Bethesda, Maryland?) at government expense, and illegally. Namely he again stole from the government and people of the United States the cost of his bed, board, and treatment there.

During March, Ewing spent some three or four weeks again in the same hospital with a shift of three nurses in attendance around the clock, as well as an operation, bed, board, and medicines etc. After being exposed by Fulton Lewis, Jr. this crook announced that he had paid $9.50 per day for his treatment. Even if he paid such, however, after his fraud had been exposed he paid only a small part of what he actually cost the taxpayers;—the salaries of three-nurses alone is much more.

As head of the Federal Security Administration Ewing is custodian of the Social Security fund (old age pensions, etc.) which is deducted from workers payrolls, and which should now amount to some eleven to thirteen billion dollars. Actually, according to one of Fulton Lewis, Jr.'s recent broadcasts, the only money actually in this fund at the moment is that currently being paid in by persons covered by the fund. The entire dozen or so billions paid in over the years since the Security Administration was established has been spent on salaries of the employees of the Administration or else for other expenses of government not even related to Social Security, much for propaganda to perpetuate the New Deal.

Yet this same Oscar Ewing is the man who would socialize medicine under his administration. Why does no member of Congress call this fiend to accountability?

ment being used by the Soviets to conquer China.

Ex-President Hoover in his Report on the military budget said:

"The question of what became of the tanks is only a part of the broader question of what became of the vast quantities of war material on hand at the end of hostilities. The Army has stated that it has material sufficient to equip only 18 divisions, although at the end of the war it had some 89 fully equipped divisions and great additional quantities of material in the pipe line. Disposition of easily replaceable material is readily understood; but loss of complicated, difficult-to-produce military equipment is another matter, especially as the military were put on notice six months after the end of the war as to the seriousness of the international situation."

Frank Hanighen in the weekly supplement entitled, "Not Merely Gossip," indicates that the scandal of the disappearance of this materiel may exceed that of Pearl Harbor.

Who but treasonable conspirators against America could have ordered it destroyed?

UNRRA

This same alien influence was back of UNRRA, $600,000,000 of whose funds were given to the communist Government of Yugoslavia, and other funds used to build up Soviet Russia herself. It was back of the surreptitious and illegal admission into the United States of "refugees" estimated to be at least a million and a half, and possibly as many as three and a half millions. It was back of the fatuous scheme known as ERP and ECA, whereby we are giving 17 billions of the savings and natural resources of the United States to bolster up socialist governments in Britain and elsewhere.

As a result of 16 years of this alien influence in the United States, we have today a Federal debt of 250 billions and a Federal budget of nearly 42 billions, but which may reach 50 billions before the present session of Congress is over. We have laws without number to regiment the people and to supply soft, useless jobs for hundreds of thousands of bureaucrats. And we find representatives of this alien-minded element in vital and cushy jobs in every department of Government, in numbers far out of proportion to their part of the population.

And now this same alien force is demanding—

That we extend "Social Security" to 20 million more people at an added cost of several billions a year; that we adopt socialized medicine, though Britain's socialized medicine seems a failure from the standpoint both of physician and patient. That we extend the so-called reciprocal trade treaties, which in somewhat similar form have been on our statute books for fifteen years and have largely destroyed the American watch industry, and have weakened others and have been one of the principal causes of this present recession.

That we restore the iniquitous Wagner Act in place of the Taft-Hartley Act, though under the former we had a continual succession of strikes and sabotage, and under the latter we have had vastly improved conditions.

And Congress has already (authorized five and a half billion dollars for ECA but not yet appropriated), although Spain, whose friendship and good will would do more for us than any other country on Continental Europe, is still left out; and although Britain and France, the two principal beneficiaries of ECA appropriations, have not only socialized Governments and tremendous numbers of Communist Party members, but Treaties of Alliance and Mutual Assistance with Soviet Russia which, if they mean anything, would preclude them from joining with the United States against Soviet Russia. Moreover both Britain and France and other beneficiary nations are constantly shipping war materiel, paid for by the American taxpayers to the USSR.

Nationalist Actionists Joins Common Sense

PHILADELPHIA, June 1—The NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE, the organization which played so major a role in the four separate defeats administered to Communist-backed attempts to enact so-called "Fair Employment Practices" legislation in the key war industry State of Pennsylvania, today officially joined forces with COMMON SENSE, the Nation's anti-Communist Newspaper, in the inauguration of an all-out offensive against Marxism and its insidious front organizations in America.

To this end, NATIONAL PROGRESS, established by W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., Director of the League, in 1945, and serving as the League's official publication since its organization in October, 1948, announced its discontinuation and urged all of its readers to throw their entire support to COMMON SENSE. Simultaneously, William J. O'Brien, Director of the LOYAL AMERICAN GROUP, an organization of patriotic citizens acting in parallel concert with COMMON SENSE, took steps to merge his membership into the new and militant anti-Red front thus created.

The action taken represents the first major step to be taken, since the outbreak of World War II, toward a unification of the forces opposing the drift toward Marxian Socialism—the bridge to Soviet Bolshevism—in America.

Commenting on the merger, Mr. O'Brien, who will serve as National Secretary of the expanded organization, said:

"A most important, a most needed step has been taken, in the merger of the Loyal American Group and the Nationalist Action League. This move will certainly help promote and foster nationalist unity. We intend to carry on a relentless campaign against the Marxist forces in the USA."

In Philadelphia, Mr. MacFarland, the League's National Director, spoke of the unification in terms of its positive and beneficial results. "What we have managed to accomplish," he declared, "is a perfectly balanced merger of two very effective anti-Communist forces, and this in an area where the left-wingers are mainly based, and thru-out which they have shown their most menacing infiltration. America's battle against Marxism will not be waged against armed revolutionaries, but against a powerful leftist voting bloc which has already managed to place dangerous pro-Communists in public office and even more dangerous pro-Communist legislation upon our statute books. To fight this type of foe, we must rally the millions of loyal Americans who, with their votes alone, are capable of saving our Republic. I feel that our organization is capable of accomplishing just such a healthful result."

Details on the militant program to be carried out by the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE are to be covered in a page which COMMON SENSE will devote, in each issue, to its activities. Included in the program are plans for the organization of units in all eastern states during the Summer of 1949, for the increased dissemination of information regarding the triple threat of Marxism—Communism, Political Zionism and World Federationism—and the ultimate establishment of a National Voters Union, creating a pro-American bloc vote for the preservation of our Christian-based, Constitutional, Republican form of Government.

claims are fostering prejudice against Jews.

Strangely enough the book seems to ignore the world Communist menace except to denounce those who identify Jews as Communists. The ADL takes particular exception to the Major Williams—Upton Close pamphlet

Do You Believe in Common American Justice?

Do you not believe, as an American, that our Republic is in danger when an appointed official of the Administration in power can label as "subversive" a group which has distinguished itself in the fight against Communism, and then flatly refuse to grant that group any kind of hearing or review, or to inform its officers and officials of the precise nature of the wrongdoings alleged against it?

If you do, and if you believe in an American's right to oppose Administration policies without fear of such Soviet-styled reprisals, then throw your weight behind the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE in demanding that the Attorney General either grant its officials a hearing immediately, or act to publicly apologize for having circulated mis-statements concerning its activities.

THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE AND ITS USE IN THE WORLD COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE. The ADL passes off the charges that it is Communist, or even lends its support to Communists, as "ridiculous." The ADL fails to mention, however, that it contributed heavily to the legal defense of THE CHICAGO JEWISH SENTINEL and its editor and publisher J. I. Fishbein during a libel suit in Chicago less than two years ago. Fishbein is a well known champion of Stalin's Russia and of every red-tinged front organization in Chicago. The ADL also fails to mention that it once employed a well known fellow-traveler by the name of Robert Greenfield who had charge of paying off John Roy Carlson for stooging for the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH. These are facts which the ADL cannot deny and which can be proved in court if need be. The ADL plays a peculiar game. For instance, this bulletin and the AMERICAN RENAISSANCE BOOK CLUB are listed as anti-Semitic. Yet we have sold more copies of a book against Communism by the Jewish author Benjamin Gitlow than any other single book store in America. Westbrook Pegler who has recently been charged as being a vicious anti-Semite has called this book THE WHOLE OF THEIR LIVES by Mr. Gitlow the most important recent contribution on the menace of Communism in America. More and more Americans are beginning to see the vast contradictions which the ADL passes off for facts. Perhaps it would be well to recall that the budget which the ADL operated on last year was $6,500,000.00. Professional tolerance-mongering pays off. HOW SECURE THESE RIGHTS? is recommended to those Americans who wish to examine the presentation of ADL "facts" and draw their own deductions. The price of the book is $2.00 and may be ordered from the AMERICAN RENAISSANCE BOOK CLUB, P. O. Box 1316, Chicago 90, Ill.

Profit from this book is 80c per copy which will of course go toward carrying on good work.

N. A. L. Cleared By Wood Committee

WASHINGTON, May 25—In a letter addressed to his colleague, Representative John Bell Williams (D. Miss.), the Hon. John S. Wood (D. Ga.), Chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities today stated that the body which he heads does not hold the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE, publicly libeled by the U. S. Attorney General's Office on April 27th, to be either subversive or Fascist.

Acting upon a request made by the League's Director, W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., Representative Williams took steps to ascertain the possibility of his being accorded a hearing before the Committee which has for years acted as the watch-dog of American Liberty. In his reply, Chairman Wood included the COMMITTEE FOR NATIONALIST ACTION, a group preceding the establishment of the presently functioning League, as another organization not cited by the Committee as being guilty of wrongdoing.

In the meanwhile, Mr. MacFarland's plea for a full public hearing before the Justice Department was flatly rejected by the U. S. Attorney General, Tom Clark, who also refused, in a communication sent thru the Office of his Assistant, Mr. Peyton Ford, to officially define the terms "subversive" and "Fascist" as these were used in the list released on April 27th.

In an immediate reply to Clark's refusal to grant a fair review, MacFarland challenged the Attorney General to take immediate steps for the issuance of a federal warrant incorporating the allegations made, in order to bring the issue before a judge and jury and provide the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE with an opportunity of defending itself at the bar of American justice.

According to Clark and his Department, action has been taken under the terms of Executive Order No. 9835, which permits the Attorney General to brand American organizations as subversive, without granting their officers or members an opportunity to publicly refute such charges.

A request for a hearing before the President's Loyalty Review Board has thus far gone unanswered. According to Internal Security Chief, William Foley, it was the Chairman of this Board, Mr. Seth Richardson, who acted to make public, thru the press and other sources, the list stigmatizing the COMMITTEE FOR NATIONALIST ACTION and the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE.

In his latest reply to the Attorney General, Mr. MacFarland stated his belief that Mr. Clark has mis-used his powers as a Cabinet Official to libel and repress groups of Americans who are lawfully opposed to the Administration of which he, Clark, is a part.

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstrations, and, finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of the bourgeoisie."—From the "Program of the Communist International," an official Red document published with the imprint of the Communist Party of the United States.

Raid

A struggle thereupon ensued, in which the deputies attempted to prevent the editor of COMMON SENSE from reaching a telephone. Resisting efforts to handcuff him without identifying themselves or stating their charge for arrest, McGinley was able, after a desperate effort, to reach his attorney, to whom he made his plight known. Even during this conversation, there were attempts made to interrupt his communication. One of the raiders, close enough to the mouth-piece of the telephone to be heard on the opposite end, kept asking McGinley: "Why are you making trouble for us." The obvious intent was to convince McGinley's attorney that his client was resisting proper and lawful arrest, or interfering with the service of a writ, which was untrue.

It was not until after these actions had transpired that the Union police were notified, and not until they arrived that McGinley was finally shown the latter's badge, thereby learning that this one Jew, at least, was truly a Union County Deputy.

McGinley arrived at the police station with a previously injured wrist swollen and bleeding. This injured wrist had borne the agonizing abuse of a handcuff, at which Deputy Greenberg had for more than twenty minutes pulled and hauled in his efforts to keep McGinley from getting to a telephone.

The raid had all the appearances of a well planned and executed affair. From what follows, the reader will no doubt agree with this observer, that the purpose was not to execute a lawful levy or, as it has since been claimed, to serve a writ of execution, but rather to develop a situation in which the pretext might be found for removing McGinley from his premises, in order to exercise an unlawful search. In support of this conclusion, the following questions seem interesting:

Firstly, if the intent of the raid was to serve a writ, why did the two Jewish deputies, and the Jewish attorney under whose instructions they acted, not advise the local Union police (a customary courtesy in cases of this kind), so that one of these could have accompanied the raiding party? Then there would have been no misunderstanding.

Secondly, if the intent of the raid was to serve a writ, why did the deputies not properly identify themselves upon entering on McGinley's property, so that he might know that they represented a legal body, rather than a group determined upon harming him or damaging his property?

Thirdly, if the intent of the raid was to serve a writ, why did the deputies fail to produce it for service? As it was, they left behind a legal paper, which was found only after McGinley had returned from the police station.

Fourthly, if the intent of the writ was to seize valuable assets in satisfaction of a judgment, why did the raiders threaten to remove all personal belongings while ignoring business equipment worth hundreds of dollars, and while finally removing from the premises only a typewriter and the addressograph-correspondence files, the latter of which have cash value only to such groups as the Anti-Defamation League, the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, the Friends of Democracy, or the Soviet secret police?

Fifthly, if the intent of the raid was in the least way lawful, why did Deputy Greenberg compel McGinley to go with him to police headquarters, while permitting Deputy Coplon and attorney Dvorin who was not an officer of the law, to remain upon McGinley's premises during his absence? This action was wholly and unquestionably illegal and no doubt planned. McGinley had every right to refuse to leave the building until it was properly padlocked. It should also be noted that attorney Dvorn, who maneuvered the raid, was found upon McGinley's premises upon his return from police headquarters. With him was an unidentified Jew whom Dvorin advised to conceal his identity when McGinley asked his name. These two men, with Deputy Coplon, had free access to office files for a full 45 minutes.

As a favorable fate would have it, McGinley was not detained for the lengthy period of time upon which the raiders had possibly counted. He arrived back at his office in time to prevent any wholesale rifling of his files, which might have been accomplished had he remained absent for a longer period of time. He was also able to demand and obtain a generally itemized receipt for the equipment and files confiscated, although not in the specific detail warranted under the circumstances.

AFTERMATH

The raid was executed late on a Friday, at a time when counter-action in the courts would be rendered almost wholly impossible, due to the approaching week-end. On the following Monday, however, McGinley's attorney, John A. Matthews, Jr., of Newark, secured an injunction, restraining the Zionist, Dvorin, from causing the removal of McGinley's seized property from the safety of the Union County Court House where they are impounded.

On Tuesday evening, McGinley was officially served with a warrant charging him with having committed assault and battery upon a law-enforcement officer, and with interfering with the service of a writ and its execution.

Recalling that the alleged assault and battery and interference took place on the preceding Friday afternoon, and that the arresting officer appeared with McGinley in his custody at Union police headquarters at that time, one is compelled to ask why the deputy failed to prefer his formal charges at that hour, rather than permitting at least three days to elapse before taking this action. Serious-minded observers, noting that all four participants in the action against COMMON SENSE are Jewish, have suggested the possibility of this time having been allowed for consultation with the Anti-Defamation League, perhaps at its closely-guarded headquarters in New York City, where the future course of action may have been planned.

The warrant was served at approximately 9:30 P.M. As the planners no doubt realized, the magistrate could not be reached at such an hour, and McGinley was compelled to remain in the Union jail overnight. The following morning he was arraigned and released in the afternoon in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury, which sits next in September.

THE NEED IS GREAT

The facts in this case indicate the menace which is inherent in the determination of the Marxist foes of America to employ any and all means, fair or foul, to silence effective opposition. This latest attempt to disorganize and suppress COMMON SENSE could well prove prophetic of the kind of tactics which will one day be employed against all Americans who dare oppose the spread of Marxist ideology.

In this hour of crisis, this newspaper and its fighting editor appeal to YOU to aid in turning back the attack. The battle requires a FULL MOBILIZATION of the brains, finances and energies of every loyal citizen, for whose welfare this paper has been crusading for the past several years.

You have been given the story, and it is now for you to choose the course of action which you will take. You can sit back and do nothing, thereby dooming this battle to defeat before it fully begins, or you can rise, as an American, and stand shoulder to shoulder with the Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper, assuring an ultimate and complete victory which will materially weaken Marxist forces here in their regional stronghold, the industrial Northeast.

If you choose the latter course of action, you can easily begin in one of the following ways:

1. Purchase additional copies of this issue of COMMON SENSE, in bulk, at the rates given elsewhere. Place them in the hands of citizens who deserve to have the facts concerning this case. Ask them to join forces with you in awakening others to the dangers herein exposed.

2. Call at least three friends, from your home telephone or from a pay station, and give them an outline of this persecution. Urge these good people to obtain the full facts, by subscribing to COMMON SENSE immediately.

3. Contact your clergyman, your local police, newspapers, civic and patriotic groups, all of whom should be advised to keep in close touch with the developments in this case.

4. If you are a member of any patriotic group, lodge, church organization or labor union, present them with our story and introduce a resolution calling upon them to keep posted on future developments.

5. Your ideas are highly valued. Any suggestions which you have for prospering our fight will be welcomed. Your idea could be the one responsible for winning the major victory which must be won, in this fight, if ALL AMERICANS are not one day to suffer similar persecution.

Now, you have the facts. Much of the battle is in your hands. The best defense is offense, so act immediately to MOBILIZE yourself and other loyal citizens in dealing a SMASHING DEFEAT to those forces which would undermine the principles, laws, liberties upon which our Republic has been founded.

You have read of the purges carried out against anti-Communist leaders in Eastern Europe. When they fell, the free governments for which they fought, fell with them.

Karl Marx, a hundred years ago said in the Neue Rheinische Zeitung: "We are ruthless and want no consideration from you. When the time comes, revolutionary terrorism will not be sugar-coated . . . There is but one way of simplifying, shortening, concentrating the death agony of the old society as well as the bloody labor of the new world's birth—revolutionary terror."
